

Complaint / Grievance Policy and Procedures

Complaint / grievance procedures are included in the Student Handbook as part of the student orientation process, assuring all students are aware of The Academy policy and procedures for filing a complaint. The Academy will make every attempt to resolve a complaint that is not frivolous or without merit. Evidence of all final resolutions to a complaint will be kept in The Academy files (and will be available during an accreditation onsite visit, in order to determine nature, frequency and patterns of complaints against The Academy.

If applicable, The accrediting body will not intervene on behalf of students in cases of disciplinary action or dismissal, or act as a court of appeals in such matters as admission, graduation, fees, and similar points of issue, unless the context suggests unethical or unprofessional actions that seriously impair or disrupt the educational services of a candidate or accredited institution. All procedures below must be exhausted prior to filing a complaint with the accrediting body, if applicable.

Parties Who May File a Complaint / Grievance

A complaint / grievance may be filed by any party who has good reason to believe that The Academy is in error regarding an Academy policy. Or any complaint resulting in a violation of accreditation standards by The Academy, which include standards required to gain or maintain accreditation by an accredited or an initial applicant or institution in candidate status, if applicable. Additionally, students who allege their Title IX rights have been violated may file a complaint / grievance according to this Complaint Policy. Other parties include but are not limited to, students and former students of The Academy, prospective students, governmental agencies with responsibility for activities of cosmetology or massage schools, members of the public, and other accredited schools.
